Sourced Media Books, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. edited by Amy E. Gooman, Anne Hagerman Wilcox, and Amy Osmond Cook, Ph.D. What is success ? And how do I cultivate it? are two questions asked by nearly every young woman today. In this timely collection of essays, 27 highly accomplished women, from doctors to business owners to stay-at-home moms, speak candidly about success and how to get there. All past participants of Distinguished Young Women, formerly America's Junior Miss, these amazing women offer a variety of perspectives on what success means and how they have achieved it. They have dreamed big, failed often, and continually learned from their experiences every step of the way. So whether you need a pep talk, some perspective about living a happy life, or savvy practical advice on how to get good grades, this book has something for you. Amy E. Goodman is a nationally recognized media maven. Her journalistic career as an editor, author, host and lifestyle expert spans magazines, news programs, and online media outlets. She's demoed yoga, interviewed celebs, cleaned out closets, and whipped up hors d'oeuvres for national outlets like Good Morning America, The Early Show, The View, The Rachael Ray Show, CNN, Access Hollywood, ET! and VH1. A multi-faceted expert, she has appeared on NBC's Today show over 75 times. View her complete profile at.
