But he cautioned Mr. Bellings against allowing Catholics to be laughed at for their credulity. About a year later Walsh received accounts of Father Finaghty, then in England, performing very wonderful cures, both on Catholics and Protestants, at the Portuguese Ambassador s in London, and at the Queen s at St. James s. It appears that he was sent for to London to cure the lady of a Portuguese nobleman, then staying with the Queen, who had lost her sight; and Father Taig M Eochny, alias Captain Power, an Irish Dominican, afterwards Bishop of Clonfert, was sent from the Court with money for father Finaghty. The mission was in vain, the money was lost, --the attempts of Finaghty to give sight to the blind countess proved a failure. Nevertheless, he maintained his credit with his friends, though the...
