Excerpt: . . . 11 That doesnt mean they cant do business, but it just means the State cant license them. In effect, the State historically has not wanted to give the seal of approval to a publicly traded for-profit company offering such programs, and of course we have them in New York, but they are not under aegis of the State. So we have some particular issues we have to deal with, but the Governor was on the right track, and I am hoping that in a biparti-san way in our State bringing together the interested parties, the Governors proposals, and others who have worked on this will come together, and we will be able to come up with some of the statutory changes that would address the disclosure issues, the in-formation issues, some of the licensing issues. But...
