Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Kingdom of Heaven: A Revelation On sending forth his disciples to proclaim the good tidings that the kingdom of heaven is at hand, anticipating the probable rejection of their testimony, Jesus said, Nevertheless be ye sure of this, the Kingdom of God is come nigh. Long before his disciples were able to discern the true spiritual significance of that kingdom, to them it was given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, for they were witnesses of their outward manifestation long before they were spiritually prepared to understand, or enter into, that state of blessedness through purity of heart and faith in God. No argument accompanied their announcement of the glad tidings, they simply proclaimed the good news; the attestation of its truth was independent of their own minds. A claim so overwhelming to the common order of thought as that of open heavenly intercourse is established, not through the deductions of human reason, but by the word of faithful witnesses, and the evidence of its truth is inherent in the very nature of that word, discerned through spiritual insight.
