Joseph O Neil, the presiding officer, was at his best, and made singularly happy characterization in introducing every one of the speakers. Hearty applause followed this letter from President Roosevelt previous to the introduction of Mr. Lyman, who represented the President: - My Dear Mr. O Neil, - May I through you extend to Archbishop O Connell, and to the guests from the great empire of Nippon who are to be present at the banquet given to Archbishop O Connell, my hearty good wishes and congratulations?
