W3 2007i OCLC Number: (OCoLC)180242175 Subject: Identification numbers, Personal -- Access control -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . or indirectly, anything of value in exchange for such number. Such term does not include the submission of such number as part of the process for applying for any type of Government benefits or programs (such as grants, loans, or welfare or other public assistance programs) or as part of the administration of, or provision of benefits under, an employee benefit plan. (XII) For purposes of this clause, the term display to the general public shall have the meaning provided such term in section 208A(a)(3)(A). In any case in which a governmental entity requires transmittal to such governmental entity of an individuals social security account number by means of the Internet without ensuring that such number is encrypted or otherwise appropriately secured from disclosure, any such transmittal of such number as so required shall be treated, for purposes of this clause, as a display to the general public of such number by such governmental entity for purposes of this clause. (XIII) For purposes of this clause, the term social security account number includes any derivative of such number. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, any expression, contained in or on any item sold or displayed to the general public, shall not be treated as a social security account number solely because such expression sets forth not more than the last 4 digits of such number, if the remainder of such number cannot be determined based solely on such expression or any other matter presented in or on such item. (XIV) Nothing in the preceding subclauses of this clause shall be construed as...
