Therefore only such movements have been treated as can easily be made intelligible by description and drawings. We have chosen almost entirely free movements, and refrained from such as require special apparatus. The duplicated resisting and passive movements of gymnastics used for curing disease have also been excluded, because these should be performed only under the direction and control of a professional and with the cooperation of a graduate of a gymnastic institution. We are not, however, unmindful of the fact that these forms of gymnastics may be applied with great success in many cases of disease specifically developed, as has been the practice for years in well conducted institutions established for the purpose. The Exercises of Home Gymnastics are primarily for the purpose...
