A., Admiral Kaznakoff, commanding Russian fleet in Columbian Review, 1893, and Russian officers, and many others. Kind Woeds. Dr. William H. Egle, author of many volumes of Notes and Queries, a History of Pennsylvania Genealogies and many other contributions to family history, says: I think you are doing excellent work and the Keim and other families allied thereto owe you a debt of gratitude which they will never be able to repay. Dr. S. P. Heilman inquires whether Our Allied Families is to be understood in the generic or inclusive sense. I might say generic as meaning a genus comprehending all instead of a species of the Keim blood only. The project might at present be called cumulative, as it will grow by increasing ratio as we get further from the root. I shall quote what the learned Doctor says about the generic sense: Then it is the more commendable for the reason that it is a larger field to work in and will bring to your aid matter from other sources that deserves to be printed, for the printing of which except in book or pamphlet form no journal to my knowledge exists, and your journal, if started on this broader plan, will at last open the way for the publication of much that is most worthy and will be of immeasurable value, especially in relation to Pennsylvania Germans and their ancestors. I think the suggestion is entitled to consideration. Librarian...
