Wallaby Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Eight weeks before Sun s final school exams she meets Tycho. Invited to a party at his parents place by the beach, Sun hopes to deepen their relationship that s begun through a sensitive exchange of poems, but confusion about the afternoon s events leads her to believe Tycho is involved with someone else. And then there s Mark who just happened to have dumped Sun s best friend the week before. Messages for Sun is an Australian coming-of-age novel that perfectly captures the aching sadness of teenage relationships. It explores the complexities of friendship, love and loss amid the intensity of a first romantic relationship. . After it was finished, he kissed me between the eyes and told me I was a fast learner, and I looked down at Tycho s painting and I thought: Is this me? Has all my goodness vanished within a week? Good . bad . I decided they were baby words. Meaningless . A version of this novel titled Saltwater Moons was published in 2008 and is no longer in print. Messages For Sun is a revised edition with an additional chapter at the end. Praise for Saltwater Moons: I read this book with a constant pricking of tears - this writing is so beautiful, so subtly balanced, so human, so filled with gentle sadness and understanding. This is a book readers will love. Peter Bishop, Creative Director of Varuna, The Writers House, Australia Gittus movingly depicts the complexities of friendship and sex . Sun s voice is literate, authentic and realistic. Australian Book Review While I was reading this book it was as if the book was flipping the pages...
